YOU CAN'T SIMULTANEOUSLY TURN OFF ALL ANALOG TELEVISION SIGNALS BY A SINGLE VIRTUAL PRESS ON THE LED WALL.
Para gawing mas actual at evidencial ang ceremonial switch, mas mainam pa rin ang tunay na push button na kayang mag-trigger ng anumang action sa direktang nakakabit na live event equipment.
Dapat ding siguruhing 'VERY LOW LATENCY' as much as possible' ang live feed ng event upang mapagsabay-sabay ang trigger patungo sa hiwa-hiwalay na lugar, hindi katulad ng nangyari sa analog TV switch off sa Indonesia.

COURTESY VISIT OF BFP REGION 6 🚒 🇵🇭

Happy to welcome the Bureau of Fire Protection Region 6, under the leadership of FCSUPT Edwin P. Vargas, DSC, Regional Director, and with the guidance of FCSUPT Wilberto Rico Neil A. Kwan Tiu, DSC, Officer-in-Charge of the Bureau of Fire Protection, during their courtesy visit together with Mayor BP Q. Biron.

This visit served as an opportunity to strengthen our partnership with the BFP and to reaffirm our shared commitment to public safety, interagency cooperation, and responsive public service.

We also thank the BFP Region 6 for recognizing the support of the Municipal Government of Barotac Nuevo in providing the venue for the Digital Examination of Fire Officer 1 applicants under the BFP Region 6 Recruitment Process.

Padayon kita sa pagbuligay sang aton mga institusyon para sa mas luwas, mas preparado, kag mas maayo nga serbisyo para sa aton mga pumuluyo.

usually, on my community tab, i'll ramble about my requests, my finds, my problems with youtube's ai system, but tonight, i need to vent about something a little personnal, just so that i can find at least ONE other person who thinks like me and to make me feel better about myself.

am i the only autistic or neurodivergent person who just wants to get rid of it already? i can't possibly be the only person that wants to jump off a cliff whenever i remember that im autistic, and im not a depressed person either. i dont hate my life to this point but there are a few things in my life that make me miserable, and me being autistic is one of them, actually ALL the things that make me miserable come from the fact im autistic: getting bullied in school, being a picky eater, not being able to have a good social interaction with somebody without sounding like it's my first day on earth, always overthinking things. i'll always wish the worst on those people who think autism is quirky cause i can guarantee you that im not trying to sound quirky when im talking about this. matter of fact, that's another problem... i never get taken seriously whenever i talk about this. everyday, i feel like im wasting my life away because i always eat the same shit everyday, i barely go to any public places, im too anxious to make any plans with anyone, i always waste my time overthinking about the most pointless stuff. for example: me and my friends are planning to hangout tomorrow. you know so far, i don't have a problem! its been a month that i haven't seen them and it's nice because im seeing them right before i leave the town. then these mfs talk about some "eating lunch at said restaurant"... what??? now idk how to tell you this but im picky and i don't order anything off their lunch menu wdyam???? ive been overthinking this for hours so far and only two options come in my head: 1. eat at home and get huge fomo, or 2. stay with them and don't order anything, except maybe a drink i don't usually order myself like that picky and i don t order anything ott their lunch menu wdyam???? ive been overthinking this for hours so far and only two options come in my head: 1. eat at home and get huge fomo, or 2. stay with them and don't order anything, except maybe a drink. i don't usually starve myself like that so idk i think of starving myself to hangout with some friends INHUMANE, but at the same time, how could i not look like a complete idiot if i tell them "oh yea imma just eat at home and then come back" i can't just do that???? wow omg top 1 best way to make your friends think you're an absolute loser!!!!!!!!!!!!!! genuinely I can't think of a good outcome for this situation so now i feel trapped into my own thoughts and i can't decide which decision is the least worse. back a few years ago, i used to watch those Dhar Mann videos since they were getting popular and there was this one video on a kid with autism getting bullied, and the life lesson for that one was "autism isn't a disability, it's just a different ability", and this quote always struck out to me in the wrong way. i never thought about my autism as an ability for anything, because what do i GAIN from it??? public embarrassment, being unfairly treated by society, a fucking eating disorder????? look, i understand how not everybody feels the same way but i just need at least ONE person in which i can relate to this, because IRL i don't have anybody who's autistic and feels the same way. everybody in my family is neurotypical so they don't help for anything when it comes to this so whats the point of even having a conversation about autism with them.

if there was a cure for autism, best believe i would be the first in line, it is probably the ONLY thing in the world preventing me from having a normal life.

and no its NOT ableist to say this, i don't hate other autistic people, im just saying my OWN pov of my OWN experience with being autistic, just so that i can find just ONE other person that feels just like me and so i can feel better about myself knowing im not alone.

'Nagdasal na lang ako para hindi mag-react'

Ipinaliwanag ni House private prosecutor Lorna Kapunan na idinadaan na lamang niya sa dasal ang pagpapakalma sa sarili upang maiwasang mag-react habang gumugulong ang impeachment trial.

Ito'y matapos silang masita ni Senator-judge Robin Padilla dahil sa aniya'y pag-iingay na nakaantala sa pagtatanong ng mambabatas. Humingi rin ng paumanhin si Kapunan kay Padilla kaugnay ng nangyari.

Did you know? Carlo Acutis is the first millennial Saint. 🙏

On September 7, 2025, Pope Leo XIV canonized Carlo Acutis, making the Italian teenager the Church's first millennial saint.

Before dying from leukemia at just 15 years old, Carlo used his computer skills to create an online exhibition documenting Eucharistic miracles around the world. Today, Catholics across the globe seek his intercession, especially young people and those working in the digital world.

Known as the “patron saint of the internet,” Saint Carlo reminds us that modern technology can become a powerful tool for evangelization and holiness.

Saint Carlo Acutis, pray for us!

AKBAYAN CONDEMNS DEATH THREATS AGAINST SENATOR RISA HONTIVEROS

Akbayan Party strongly condemns the death threats directed at Senator Risa Hontiveros, our highest-elected party leader in government. We call on the authorities to act immediately to identify, investigate, and prosecute those responsible. Death threats and intimidation have no place in a democratic society. Democracy depends on the free exchange of ideas, where political differences are expressed through peaceful dialogue, debate, and democratic processes, not through fear, violence, or threats to life.

We cannot become a country where death threats are treated as normal, whether they come from public officials, or private individuals. A culture of threats is a threat to democracy itself. It creates fear, silences criticism, discourages people from speaking out, and undermines the peaceful and secure life that every Filipino deserves. No one should fear for their safety for expressing an opinion, demanding truth and accountability, or serving the public.

Senator Risa has consistently stood for human rights, truth, and accountability, and has often Senator Risa has consistently stood for human rights, truth, and accountability, and has often been the target of harassment and disinformation. Akbayan stands firmly with Kasamang Risa. We will not be intimidated, and we will continue to defend our democratic space where dissent is protected and public servants can perform their duties without fear. We call on all to reject the politics of violence and uphold justice, respect, and peaceful democratic engagement.

PANIC AT TACLOBAN HIGH SCHOOL

READ: <https://l.cdn.ph/j7wYxp>

LOOK: The Tacloban City Police Office said that some students at San Jose High School, where a school shooting happened last month, fled the campus in panic after hearing screams Friday morning, July 24.

It turned out to be a false alarm as responding personnel later determined that the screams had come from a field activity.

The police declared the situation under control. However, as a precaution, students were allowed to go home. | via Nicolo Nasol #CDNDigital

In the foreground, there is a red Jollibee bucket filled with more fried chicken, a clear plastic cup of iced lemonade, and a red Jollibee-branded napkin. The Jollibee logo is visible on a red sign in the background. The text "Joyful Summer" is printed on the bucket. The overall scene is set against a dark background.

UNIVERSITY: Collegiate classes to continue amid red rainfall warning over Iloilo

Despite the red rainfall warning raised over Iloilo City and other parts of Western Visayas, face-to-face classes for collegiate students at Central Philippine University (CPU) will continue as scheduled today, July 24.

Earlier today, a red rainfall warning was raised over Iloilo City and several municipalities in the province, signaling a high risk of serious flooding due to intense and persistent rainfall.

However, the University announced that only face-to-face classes from Preschool to Senior High School are suspended in compliance with the directive of Iloilo City Mayor Raisa Treñas.

Meanwhile, face-to-face classes for the College of Law, College of Medicine, and Graduate School levels will proceed as scheduled with university offices also remaining open, and work operations continuing as usual.

The University advised Centralians to stay safe and monitor official announcements for further updates.

MEMORIAL OF SAINT CHARBEL MAKHLOUF
FRIDAY DEVOTION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Today, the Church joyfully celebrates the Memorial of Saint Charbel Makhlouf, the humble Lebanese Maronite monk and hermit whose life of silence, prayer, and deep love for the Holy Eucharist continues to inspire the faithful throughout the world. Through his powerful intercession, countless people have experienced God's healing, mercy, and grace.

As we also observe Friday, a day traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, let us draw near to the Heart of Christ, the inexhaustible source of divine love and mercy. May the example of Saint Charbel encourage us to spend more time in prayer, remain faithful in every trial, and place our complete trust in the Lord.

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus fill our hearts with peace, compassion, and steadfast faith, and through the prayers of Saint Charbel, may those who are sick, suffering, and burdened find healing, hope, and strength.

ALL. LOCKED. IN.

#OktuCheeseM00so ❤️💚💙

oktuthorpe cheesemooso

'The Lopezes' white knight has made an initial payment to secure its planned entry into the empire, in a move that could, for better or for worse, see the end of the Lopezes' control of the conglomerate founded by Don Eugenio Lopez Sr.

The down payment – or is it lock-in money? – has been made, sources said.

The plot twist, however, is that the focus is not just ABS-CBN, contrary to the initial buzz in the grapevine, but on the ultimate parent level, Lopez Inc., the principal holding company of the Lopez Group of Companies that holds the private investments and business interests of the Lopez family within the Lopez Group.

15 minutes na lang

Sa Metrorail, madali mong mararating ang iyong pupuntahan.
Walang traffic at lalong walang bangaan.
Safe-na-safe ka. Maging sa loob ng train o sa mga line stations at terminals na palaging may guwardiya. At iniilawan ang mga ito sa gabi. Mura ang pasahe sa Metrorail. Sa halagang P2.00 lamang, mararating mo ang alin mang line station o terminal.

The Metrorail will run regularly, from 4:00 a.m. to 12 midnight, with train departures every 5 minutes. Madaling sumakay sa Metrorail. At lalong madaling makarating.

1 Pumunta sa pinakamalapit na Metrorail terminal o line station. There is one in the following areas along Taft Avenue:
• Baclaran
• EDSA
• Libertad St.
• Gil Puyat Ave.
• Vito Cruz St.
• Quirino Ave.
• Arroceros St.

2 Bumili ng tokens sa token booth na matatagpuan sa mga Metrorail terminals at line stations. Ang tokens ay parang coins na kakailanganin ninyo para makapasok sa turnstiles. Ang bawat token ay nagkakahalaga ng P2.00 lamang.

3 Pumili ng turnstile na may green light. Ihulog dito ang token, para bumukas ang turnstile upang tuloy-tuloy kang umakyat patungo sa loading platform. Hindi ka malinip maghintay. May train na aalis every five minutes.

4 Ang pagsakay sa train ay napakadali. Umakyat sa gawing kanan ng pinto at pagbigyan ang pasahe-rong pasaba. Kapag tumunog na ang buzzer ng train, the doors will automatically close. Kaya, maghintay sa kasunod, na darating sa loob ng limang minuto lamang. Habang naghihintay

5 Hintaying lubusang nakahinto ang train bago bumaba sa pinakamalapit na pintuan. Para sa inyong kaalaman, all Metrorail line stations will be announced by the train operator.

Sa Metrorail, on top ka na, ahead ka pa.

“Leni is a product of necropolitics” is what happens kapag may nakadampot ng isang academic term at ginamit agad nang walang comprehension at adult supervision. Nagsimula siya sa halos 1% at binuo ang suporta sa sarili niyang record—public service, competence, transparency, disaster response, at kahandaang humarap sa scrutiny.

Pakinggan mo ang supporters ni Leni: trabaho, kwalipikasyon, programa, at leadership ang binabanggit. Pakinggan mo ang depensa kay Sara: madalas nauwi sa “anak siya ni Digong,” na para bang hereditary property ang Malacañang at sapat nang resumé ang birth certificate.

Kaya ang tawaging produkto ng “necropolitics” si Leni habang ibinebenta si Sara gamit ang pangalan at political machinery ng kanyang ama ay hindi political analysis. Intellectual cosplay iyon—kumpleto sa malalim na salita, pero walang comprehension sa loob.

Excellent teamwork and a perfect leadout in Stage 17 of the Tour de France 2026 allowed Jasper Philipsen to finally reach the top of the podium at this year's race.

He was led out by from Mathieu van de Poel, and the victory was his 11th in TDF competition.

After catching the breakaway late in the stage, the sprinters found another opportunity to steal the spotlight as the days wind down.

The win also helped Philipsen cut the deficit in the battle for the green points jersey to just seven points.

Deep in the Church of the Primacy of St. Peter at Tabgha on the shores of the Sea of Galilee stands this sacred rock — Mensa Christi (the Table of Christ).

According to tradition and the Gospel of John (21:1-14), it was here that the Risen Lord prepared a charcoal fire and cooked breakfast of fish and bread for His weary disciples after a long night of empty nets. He called them to a miraculous catch, then tenderly invited them: “Come and have breakfast.”

It was at this very spot that Jesus restored Peter with three questions of love — healing his threefold denial and commissioning him: “Feed my sheep.”

This humble stone inside the existing Franciscan church (built in 1933 over earlier structures) continues to draw pilgrims today. It reminds us of a God who meets us in our ordinary moments — our failures, our tiredness — and turns them into encounters of forgiveness, provision, and mission.

Lord, thank You for preparing a table for us even after we have fallen. Help us to answer Your call: “Do you love Me?” with our lives.

Florida defendant’s online footprint shows apparent support for Duterte

Publicly accessible online records indicate that Schubert Navarroza Macarat, the Filipino-American facing the death penalty in Florida over child sexual abuse charges, appeared to have been an outspoken supporter of former Philippine president Rodrigo Duterte, although no evidence has emerged linking him to any official Duterte campaign or political organisation.

Macarat, 41, was indicted by a Florida grand jury on multiple felony charges, including counts of sexual battery involving a child under the age of 12. Prosecutors have filed notice that they intend to seek the death penalty if he is convicted. He has denied the allegations through the legal process and remains presumed innocent unless proven guilty in court.

An examination of Macarat’s publicly indexed online footprint suggests a pattern of political content favourable to Duterte and critical of the former president’s opponents.

former president’s opponents.

One of the strongest pieces of evidence is a YouTube channel bearing the name “SCHUBERT MACARAT”, which featured several videos portraying Duterte’s anti-corruption campaigns in a favourable light. Among the indexed titles were videos discussing the PhilHealth controversy and Duterte’s calls to remove or prosecute government officials linked to the scandal. The channel was publicly listed under the handle @meekstrangerph245.

Historical search records also attribute to an account named “Schubert Macarat” a Facebook comment directed at Rappler in 2017, stating: “EXPOSE THE RAPPLER. EXPOSE THE SOROS. MEDIA FOR SALE. We will bring you down Rappler.” The same indexed comment also referenced Thinking Pinoy, a blog widely associated with pro-Duterte political commentary during Duterte’s presidency.

Separate screenshots that have resurfaced on social media also appear to show an account using Macarat’s name posting abusive remarks against Aika Robredo, daughter of former vice president Leni Robredo, one of Duterte’s most prominent political rivals.

The screenshots, which have circulated widely following Macarat’s indictment in the United States, have not been independently authenticated by BBC-style verification following Macarat’s indictment in the United States, have not been independently authenticated by BBC-style verification standards. No original Facebook URL or archived version confirming their authenticity has been publicly established.

Taken together, however, the available online material suggests a consistent pattern of political messaging supportive of Duterte and hostile towards his critics.

Despite this, no publicly available records show that Macarat held any official position in Duterte’s presidential campaign, served in the administration, belonged to PDP-Laban or any recognised Duterte political organisation, or worked as a government employee connected to the former president.

Researchers also caution that, while the online accounts bear Macarat’s name, publicly available evidence has not conclusively established that every account circulating online belonged to the same Schubert Navarroza Macarat now facing prosecution in Florida. Identity verification would require additional corroborating evidence such as matching photographs, linked accounts, personal identifiers or archived account information.

As a result, the available evidence supports describing Macarat as someone who appeared to have publicly expressed support for Duterte

As a result, the available evidence supports describing Macarat as someone who appeared to have publicly expressed support for Duterte, rather than characterising him as an official campaign worker, paid political operator or member of an organised Duterte network.

The political material has no known connection to the criminal case against Macarat.

Florida prosecutors allege that investigators recovered thousands of files during the investigation, including hundreds of videos alleged to contain child sexual abuse material. Those allegations remain before the court, and Macarat retains the presumption of innocence unless convicted.

French authorities have ordered the evacuation of the entirety of the Cap Ferret peninsula on the south-west coast, with hundreds of people escaping the area by boat.

Tens of thousands of people are being evacuated from the tourism destination west of Bordeaux, as firefighters continue to battle what has described as an "XXL fire" in the Gironde region.

The fires, which began on Tuesday, have burned for days, with officials saying 10,000 hectares (almost 25,000 acres) had been consumed by the flames.

Meanwhile, the government in Spain has declared a national emergency as wildfires burn out of control in several areas close to the capital Madrid.
